

THE MILKMAID.

This is a young girl with a milk can. Now she is going to the market and she is thinking:

- I'm going to sell the milk in the market. With the money I'm going to buy a good hen.

- My hen is going to lay a lot of eggs and I'm going to sell the eggs. With the money I'm going to buy a young piglet.

- The piglet is going to get fat and big.

Then I'm going to sell the big and fat pig. With the money I'm going to buy a milk cow.

- The cow is going to give a lot of milk and I'm going to sell the milk in the market every week.

I'm going to be rich!

But she jumps for joy and the milk can falls to the floor and crashes.
